Dear Maui,

Last month we said October would be full of interesting events.....Now we find ourselves waiting for the other shoe to drop!

Business continues to grow here at Copperwest, but the average sale is down. Transaction complexity is up. Way up. Take away from this month? Please use a Realtor and reputable mortgage broker. If sleep during a transaction could be turned into money, trust us, you'd make tons.

On a positive note, we've been having a lot of fun obtaining broad coverage out on the web. Learning lots about online distribution, and I can tell you that we are now the most comprehensively (if that's a word) listed Hood River agency on the web.....(Web 2.0 rocks)

Enjoy the newsletter this month! Kind of a mixed bag, and I thought I sensed a bottom there for a minute..... Its out there, I swear!

Best Regards,

Maui, Bill, Hunter, Judy, Carmen, Stacey and Katie
The Copperwest Crew

Care to Own this View?

Surrounded in pure solitude and all that Parkdale living has to offer, the Rudolph Estate is a private retreat of the first order.

Acres of forest and meadow, yet minutes from Parkdale. Another once in a lifetime piece. Call us for a private tour today.

Kiteboarding is the New Golf

Honest. Fortune Magazine says so!

Normally, writing about a sport other than selling homes is frowned upon in this newsletter, but I just can't resist.

Apparently, Kiteboarding, the sport of choice in our office (my addicted self included) is the Silicon Valley 2.0 version of Golf.

We are so far out, we are in.....

The View From Here.

I'll save the prose this month. I'm running out of ways to describe waiting for the full disclosure to be completed.

I wake up each morning, and it's all still here, and I really can't think of a nicer place to live, so, that's gotta count for something!
